Freight Sans Compressed, the slimmer, taller brother of Freight Sans and Freight Sans Condensed, is an economical sans serif design, well-suited for magazine and newspaper section heads, headlines and book covers. The compressed styles are designed for situations when space is at a premium but the copy is not. These fonts round out the sans series that includes Freight Sans and Freight Sans Condensed. All Freight Sans fonts are well suited for corporate branding in the health care, food and beverage, airline and automotive industries, and are well-formed for use in campaigns and logos.

All Freight Pro fonts have advanced typographic features: Small caps, proportional oldstyle and tabular lining figures, fractions, extended ligature set, alternate characters, dingbats and symbols along with extensive foreign language support.

GOOD SENSE IS, of all things among men, the most equally distributed; for every one thinks himself so abundantly provided with it, that those even who are the most difficult to satisfy in everything else, do not usually desire a larger measure of this quality than they already possess. And in this it is not likely that all are mistaken the conviction is rather to be held as testifying that the power of judging aright and of distinguishing truth from error, which is properly what is called good sense or reason, is by nature equal in all men; and that the diversity of our opinions, consequently, does not arise from some being endowed with a larger share of reason than others, but solely from this, that we conduct our thoughts along different ways, and do not fix our attention on the same objects. For to be possessed of a vigorous mind is not enough; the prime requisite is rightly to apply it. The greatest minds, as they are capable of the highest excellences, are open likewise to the greatest aberrations; and those who travel very slowly may yet make far greater progress, provided they keep always to the straight road, than those who, while they run, forsake.
